

Ballet 314 Unveils 5th season with Fall Fête: Twisted Tales – An Enchanting Fundraiser

ST LOUIS, MO- St Louis' newest forward-thinking professional ballet company invites you to attend their 5th season opener, which highlights their company dancers through contemporary ballet choreography and storytelling- all with an autumn twist. Fall Fête: Twisted Tales will feature the expansion of Poe², Artistic Director Robert Poe's gripping retelling of Edgar Allan Poe's poetic works and Whispers of Autumn an audience favorite piece with 15 dancers, and set to music by Vivaldi, alongside a brand new duet Until The Last Drop of Ink by company dancer, Marcela Gómez Lugo depicting a tragic love story rooted in her family's past.

Patrons of our matinee performance will enjoy the triple-bill along with a talkback following the program. The 6:30 PM season celebration, triple-bill performance and fundraiser includes complimentary seasonal appetizers and beverages, and a post-show meet and mingle with company members, board of directors, and artistic staff. It also includes one complimentary raffle ticket.

Proceeds from all ticket sales as well as the evening's raffle, and live fundraising pledge will support Ballet 314's mission to celebrate and invest in professional dancers that have chosen St. Louis as their home. These performances will take place in the Kirkwood Performing Arts Center Black Box Theatre
